

This is an offline version of the online application/renewal form at www.savah.org.za. You may apply via the website where you have the option to pay via PayFast. You can also email this form to membership@savah.org.za with proof of payment (see banking details at the bottom of this form), or request a PayFast payment link. We can also provide an invoice for single or multiple memberships (as in academic departments) if paying through an institutional finance system. Membership runs on a fixed-year cycle from 1 July to 30 June the following year but you may join at any time – and if for example you are joining us for the first time after 1 March of a given year, your membership will run up to 30 June the following year (you get up to four months' bonus membership).

SAVAH, formerly the South African Association of Art Historians (SAAAH), was established in 1984 to promote art history in South Africa. The South African Visual Arts Historians (SAVAH) is an organisation of academics and professionals dedicated to advancing art history and visual culture.

SAVAH organises:

Annual conferences and ad hoc workshops, symposia and other events.

Membership benefits:

News emails. Reduced rates for SAVAHA conferences and other activities.
